D-Fuse is a London-based artist collective working across a range of media. Founded in the mid-1990s by Michael Faulkner, its output encompasses installations, film, experimental documentary, photography, live cinema performances, VR/AR and architectural projects. From its origins in graphic/web design and VJing, D-Fuse's work has evolved to address social and environmental themes and explore collaborative processes. Further to working with groundbreaking musicians Steve Reich, Beck, Hauschka, Scanner and Swayzak, many of D-Fuse's projects, since 2004, features sound/music by audio director Matthias Kispert or audio-architect Martyn Ware [of Heaven 17/The Human League].

D-fuse has exhibited internationally at events including SFMOMA, WRO Festival [Wroclaw], Prix Ars Electronica [Linz], Sonar [Barcelona], onedotzero Festivals, Eyebeam and TriBeCa Film Festival [NYC], MU and STRP Festival [Eindhoven], Lisbon and Valencia Biennale and the Moscow Architectural Biennale. The D-Fuse-edited book, VJ: Audiovisual Art and VJ Culture, was published by Laurence King in 2007..
